

NINETEEN

Opening

CELEBRATIONS

May 9 to 23

Join us for two weeks of back-to-back programming At YOUR New Arts & Entertainment Centre! Whitchurch-Stouffville takes centre stage with the launch of the Lebovic Centre for Arts & Entertainment, Nineteen on the Park.

MAY 9

PREMIERE GALA

6:30 P.M. Reception and Opening Ceremony followed by a variety show of comedy, drama, music and dance featuring comedian Glen Foster (That Canadian Guy), Rumba Lyabo (Afro-Cuban music/dance), Rob Christian (saxophone) and Robert Scott (piano), Music Mania, Bach to Blues, YDAPA, and an operatic grande finale! Tickets: $100.

MAY 10

SPRING SPIRIT

9:30 A.M. This morning begins with an ecumenical worship service featuring children's choirs, gospel music and film to bring together the congregations of the community in the new building. Following the service, a celebration of a different sort will focus on the greening of Stouffville, both in the seasonal sense and in consideration of our natural environment.

12:00 P.M. – 4:00 P.M. Nineteen on the Park and surrounding Civic Square will be the place to celebrate Mothers and Mother Earth with booths on gardening, green activities and a local market. Free admission. Sponsored by Enbridge.

Suessical THE MUSICAL

7:30 P.M. York Durham Academy of the Performing Arts proudly presents "Seussical", Theatre for Young Audiences Version, based on the works of Dr. Seuss. Seussical is a charming musical... pure Seussimania! Follow the adventures of Horton, the elephant, as in Horton Hears a Who and Horton Hatches an Egg – of course! When chaos erupts in the Jungle of Nool, Horton and a host of your favourites, including the Cat in the Hat and Gertrude McFuzz, must bring harmony back to their world. A world where anything is possible. Seuss' most beloved characters come tumbling right out of the books and up onto our stage in this joyful, smart musical romp through the heart of Seussdom. Join forty-five young people from Markham and Stouffville as they take to this brand new stage in YDAPA's 24th Broadway musical presentation. Tickets: $10.

SUSTAINABLE STOUFFVILLE

6:30 P.M. – 9:00 P.M. Targeted at intermediate grades and high school students, the after-school portion of this event will provide an opportunity for students to mount an artistic response to films created by youth for youth relating to themes of sustainability. In the evening, inspired by the youth response and a short presentation from an interview with Gwynne Dyer from his recent book Climate Wars, the broader public will have the opportunity, through a facilitated discussion, to examine what we can do at a personal, household, and community level to advance sustainability locally. Free Admission. Sponsored by Enbridge.

MAY 15

STOUFFVILLE NIGHT AT THE MOVIES

7:00 P.M. Early/Children's Show – with the 1971 family classic, "Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory". The Oscar-nominated movie, starring Gene Wilder, takes five children on a surreal journey through Wonka's fabulous factory.

9:00 P.M. Late Show – "Out-sourced" is an up-to-the-minute comedy about a call centre in Seattle, whose manager (Josh Hamilton) is forced to train staff in India to take over all the jobs in his department, including his own. Admission: pay what you can. Presented by The Stouffville Free Press.

MAY 16

NUPTIALS AT NINETEEN (PRIVATE EVENT)

The facility is ideal for a beautiful wedding and, thus, a wedding quest, à la Canadian Idol, found a couple ready to tie the knot on this day in May. The selected couple won the private use of the facility for free, and several local businesses sponsored the contest – Barthau Jewellers, Stouffville Florist, Signature Party Rental, JMC Audio Pro, Charlinda Chocolates and AirZone Limousines. The catering kitchen, sound system and gorgeous surroundings will certainly make this a venue of choice for many weddings and special occasions in the future.

OPEN MIC

2:00 P.M. – 5:00 P.M. Organized by We Rock School of Music in Stouffville, this jam session will attract musicians of all ages for an afternoon of unstructured creativity. The space is just right, and the new sound system will rock the crowd. Stouffville is filled with performers just waiting for an opportunity to dazzle an audience and, now, Nineteen on the Park is the place to be. Amateur talent takes the stage! (Hey, we do have some professional musicians that may just show up!) Part Jam session, part concert – all fun! Free Admission. Presented by We Rock School of Music, Stouffville.

YOUNG AT ART

12:00 P.M. – 4:00 P.M. A holiday afternoon will offer young participants the opportunity to experience hands-on arts and crafts projects. Local artists will demonstrate and share their artistic skills with children and their families. Free admission. Presented by the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum. Sponsored by Arrowsmith and Associates and Dr. Barbara Frackowiak.

MAY 19

EXPERIENCE DANCE WORKSHOPS

5:30 P.M. TO 7:00 P.M. Contemporary Choreography.

7 P.M. TO 8:30 P.M. Broadway-Jazz! Are you ready to be inspired and stand out from the crowd? Then join us for one or both of these world-class dance workshops for teen and adult dancers, taught by Graham, Fosse and Luigi expert Ms. Alex Cilic, who has shared the stage and studio with performers like Madonna, Liza Minnelli, and John Travolta. The skills learned here can take a dancer from higher to hired! Previous dance training is required. All proceeds donated to the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation of Canada. Registration $19/session ($5 discount for both!). Presented by Ovation!

MAY 20

STOUFFVILLE HORIZONS

7:30 A.M. – 9:30 A.M. Mayor's Business Breakfast Exploring the future of Stouffville at many levels, this event begins early with Breakfast with the Mayor followed by a presentation of the Community Improvement Plan and local economic development initiatives by Town Staff.

3:30 P.M. – 5:00 P.M. Business Networking The afternoon will provide a business-to-business networking opportunity. Local businesses will be invited to see a demonstration of the facility to showcase how Nineteen on the Park can be used for various purposes/business events. A discussion on packaging and cross promotion between businesses and with Nineteen on the Park will also be provided. Presented by The Town of Whitchurch Stouffville.

6:45 P.M. – 9:00 P.M. Parent Workshop "Is your teen heading in the right direction?" Parents are the most important influence in their teen's career choice. Yet many parents worry about how to coach their teenager successfully. This interactive event will help parents understand their parental coaching style, provide insight into key factors in career decision-making and supply a comprehensive resource package about 'hot' job prospects, labour market information and career sites to help parents and teens effectively work out the future together. Free admission. Presented by York Region District School Board, Career & Employment Services.

BRIDGING THE GENERATIONS

11:00 A.M. – 3:00 P.M. There is a natural affinity between seniors and the young. We will capture that energy in a day of fun, food, dance and song. The local seniors groups and residences are invited to share the day with students from Stouffville District Secondary School. Square dancing and some choral music, along with a lunch in the new facility will create a special experience for all participants. Tickets $5. Register by phone at 905-640-1910, ext. 297. Sponsored by Stouffville Creek Retirement Residence.

MAY 22

YOUTH CAFE

7:00 P.M. – 9:30 P.M. Further demonstrating the multi-faceted nature of Nineteen on the Park and its ability to appeal to a wide range of audiences, the big screen will be 'test-driven' in a new way as our youth enjoy an interactive evening of Nintendo Wii gaming. Free admission. Presented by The Mayor's Youth Council.

MAY 23

CELEBRATION FINALE

8:00 P.M. Weaving pathos and comedy through dance and song. Stouffville's own MOTUS O soars through the themes of love, spiritual awakening and the exploration of the complexities of faith and humanity, in their interpretation of Carl Orff's CARMINA BURANA. Tickets $25. Sponsored by MOTUS O.
