

Cultivation by Reading

Each of the books in the Victorian Gentleman exhibit was chosen as an example of Victorian literature or non-fiction. Follow the links below to get a closer look at the titles on display and “cultivate” yourself as a Victorian would!

Links:

Cyclopedia of Moral and Religious Truths, 1866:

<http://www.archive.org/details/cyclopediaofillu00bate>

Hard Times, Charles Dickens:

<http://www.archive.org/details/hardtimesforthe01dickgoog>

Household Words, compiled by C. Dickens, 1858:

<http://www.archive.org/details/hsholdwords01dickmiss>

Report of the Commissioner, Ontario Agricultural Commission, 1881:

http://openlibrary.org/books/OL24336392M/Report_of_the_Commissioners

The Works of W.M. Thackeray:

http://ebooks.adelaide.edu.au/t/thackeray/william_makepeace/